8. Appointment of Mrs. Viviane Reding as independent director of the Company.
The Board of Directors recommends this director for her professional skills according to the following CV. According to the Board of Directors she meets the independence requirements as mentioned in article 526ter of the Companies Code.

Viviane Reding (*1951 – Luxembourger) is one of the most prominent personalities of Europe, completing 3 terms as member of the European Government and 2 terms as Member of the European Parliament.

After obtaining a PhD degree (University Sorbonne, Paris), Viviane Reding acted as a professional journalist during 20 years. In 1999, having served 10 years in the Luxembourg Parliament and 10 years in the European Parliament, she became European Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport. In her first term she pushed through the "Erasmus World" Programme, expanding the co-operation between universities and the exchange of students worldwide. She also strengthened the MEDIA programme for the promotion of European films.

In 2004 she became EU Commissioner for Information Society and Media. In that role, she won a major battle against telecom companies by capping mobile roaming charges by 70%. She was instrumental in the reform of the European telecom sector, opening the internal market to competition. In that period, she also reformed the European research area, reinforcing the technological research platforms.

In 2010 she became first Vice-President and EU Commissioner responsible for Justice, Fundamental Rights and Citizenship. She put in place a truly EU Justice policy, launching a series of ground-breaking proposals in the field of civil, commercial, consumer and criminal law, creating thus the basis for a European area of justice. She initiated the chapter "Justice for growth", enabling both businesses and consumers to benefit fully from their rights in the European single market. This chapter includes proposals in the field of consumer rights, cross border recovery of debts and recognition of documents, women on boards, a common European sales law and the reform of the EU data protection rules.

Viviane Reding was awarded numerous national, European and cultural awards as well as a number of "Honoris Causa" degrees by Universities. She published many articles, mainly on the reform of European Institutions, on the development of the European Union into a Federal Political Union as well as on economic and financial governance.

Proposal for resolution: the General Meeting resolves to appoint Mrs. Viviane Reding, Rue de l'Ordre de la Couronne de Chene 11, L-1361 Luxembourg, as independent director (as she meets the independence requirements as mentioned in article 526ter of the Companies Code) of the Company for a four (4) year period to come into effect today and to terminate immediately after the General Meeting that will consider the approval of the financial statements of the financial year ending on December 31, 2018.

9. Appointment of Mrs. Hilde Laga as independent director of the Company.
The Board of Directors recommends this director for her professional skills according to the following CV. According to the Board of Directors she meets the independence requirements as mentioned in article 526ter of the Companies Code.

Hilde Laga (*1956 - Belgian) is recognised as a Belgian authority in the corporate law advisory field. Until 2014 she combined client work as a lawyer with an esteemed academic career.

Hilde Laga was born in 1956 in Roeselare, Belgium. After obtaining a PhD in Law at the University of Leuven, she founded the law firm Laga, which she led as managing partner and lead of the corporate M&A practice until 2013. Laga comprises now approximately 150 qualified lawyers, based in Brussels, Antwerp and Kortrijk, and is one of the leading law firms in Belgium. As a lawyer, she was involved in numerous high profile transactions and lawsuits.

As a professor at Belgium's well known university of Leuven, Hilde lectures corporate law, a subject on which she has written numerous national and international publications.

In 2014 she joined the Board of Directors of Barco NV, Aedifica NV and Greenyard Foods NV. She is a member of the Belgian Corporate Governance Committee and served several years as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Belgian Financial Services and Markets Authority (former CBFA). Besides, she acts as a director in a number of nonprofit organisations such as the board of K.U. Leuven and its university hospital.

Proposal for resolution: the General Meeting resolves to appoint Mrs. Hilde Laga, Wolvendreef 26d, B-8500 Kortrijk, as independent director (as she meets the independence requirements as mentioned in article 526ter of the Companies Code) of the Company for a four (4) year period to come into effect today and to terminate immediately after the General Meeting that will consider the approval of the financial statements of the financial year ending on December 31, 2018.
