Q2 2016

- For inkjet, the drupa trade fair was a success in terms of order generation. However, as customers are reluctant to invest in the months before the fair, this is not reflected in the topline.
- The volume trend in the digital prepress segment continued to improve but the business continued to suffer from competitive pressure.
- The gross profit margin increased, helped by efficiency improvements and raw material effects.
- Recurring EBIT at 22.3 million Euro.
- Business highlights
- Successful drupa: sales targets exceeded
- New Anapurna i inkjet print engines
- New software and equipment in prepress

HealthCare: Main Drivers behind Key Figures

Q2 2016

- In spite of the good performance of the IT business, HealthCare's topline decreased. The decline is mainly explained by the hardcopy business, where sales were exceptionally high in the first three quarters of 2015.
- Good performance of the IT segment.
- Gross profit margin improved significantly thanks to targeted efficiency programs.
- Recurring EBIT at 37.3 million Euro.
- Business highlights
- New Enterprise Imaging platform continues to convince major customers
- ORBIS agreement with Derby Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
- Agfa HealthCare joined the Watson Health Imaging Center of Excellence
