Time of delivery or performance is not of the essence of the Contract and is not to be made so without the consent in writing from the Seller or the Service Provider (whichever is appropriate). In the event of inability for any reason to supply the total demand of the Goods ordered, the Seller may allocate the available supply among all purchasers or users (including the Seller and its affiliates) or make partial shipments, on such basis as it may deem fair or practical without liability for any failure or performance which may result there from.

9. Interest on Overdue Accounts

- 9.1 The Seller and/or the Service Provider reserve the right to charge interest on overdue accounts at a rate of 3% per annum over and above ING N.V's London Branch base rate from time to time, without prejudice to the Seller and/or the Service Provider's other rights under the Contract. This interest will be calculated on a daily basis from the day the invoice becomes due until payment is made in full, both before and after judgment.

The Seller reserves the right to terminate the Buyer's power of sale by notice to the Buyer if the Buyer is in default for longer than 7 days in the payment of any sums due to the Seller for whatever reason.

10.6 Returnable product carriers or containers delivered but not sold hereunder are the property of the Seller and at the Seller's option the Buyer will either return them undamaged freight collect to the destination designated by the Seller or make them available at the Buyer's premises for collection by or on behalf of the Seller, in either case within the period specified by the Seller. Any deposit made by the Buyer on such product carriers or containers shall be forfeited in the event of failure to return them undamaged within the specified period. Where no deposit is required, the Buyer agrees to reimburse the Seller for the value, as shown on the face of the invoice, of any such product carriers or containers damaged or not returned within the specified period. For the avoidance of doubt, the Warranty Period commences on the original date of delivery of the Goods.

11.2 The Seller will refund to the Buyer the cost of carriage on the return of any such defective or damaged Goods, and will deliver any repaired or replacement Goods to the Buyer at the Seller's own expense.

11.3 Any defective Goods which have been replaced will belong to the Seller. Any substituted Goods provided by way of repair or replacement will be liable to repair or replacement under the terms specified in condition 11.1 for the unexpired portion of the Warranty Period from the original date of delivery of the replacement Goods.

24. No Partnership of Agency

Nothing in the Contract shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between the parties hereto nor constitute any party the agent of another party for any purpose.

25. Disputes

Any dispute or differences which shall at any time arise between the Seller and/or the Service Provider and the Buyer (in respect of the Goods and/or the Services) will, together with all relevant information in relation to the dispute, be referred to the National Service Manager of the Seller and/or the Service Provider (as appropriate) and the Group Purchasing Manager of the Buyer (or such other individual as may be nominated by the Buyer) as soon as reasonably practicable after the dispute has arisen with a view to those parties reaching an early agreement in relation to the dispute.
