Agfa-Gevaert announces the results of scrip private placement

Not intended for distribution in the United States of America, Switzerland, Canada, Australia or Japan

Mortsel (Belgium), November 8, 2010 – 12:30 CET

Agfa-Gevaert NV announces that, following the scrip private placement, 100% of the public offering has now been committed to be subscribed by existing shareholders and new investors. As a result, the underwriting banks will not take up any shares.

Today, November 8, 2010, the 13,402,472 unexercised preferential rights were offered for sale to institutional investors in the European Economic Area through a scrip placement procedure at a price of EUR 4.40 per scrip. Institutional investors have purchased all unexercised preferential rights. These investors have irrevocably undertaken to exercise the scrips and subscribe to 1 new share per 3 scrips at the subscription price of EUR 3.45 per share.

The net proceeds (after deduction of certain expenses) to which holders of unexercised preferential rights are entitled amounts to EUR 0.3166 per coupon no. 9. This amount will be paid as from Monday November 15, 2010.

The final results of the public offering for subscription will be announced via a press release and will be published in the financial press on Wednesday November 9, 2010.

The payment of the subscription price, the realization of the capital increase and the listing of the new shares and VVPR strips on Euronext Brussels are expected to take place on Friday November 12, 2010.

Trading of Agfa-Gevaert NV shares on Euronext Brussels will resume around 13:15 CET.
